SECTION 1: General Feedback

Please provide some general feedback on your experiences at the Migrant Workers Program.

1. What was the best part of the program for you? Why?

1	The best part of this training for me, is protection in migrant workers their family
2	Everything was important
3	I think the all program Very important for me, because, this program giving lesson to me, to practice in my community, my society and the Country
4	Sharing informations. Its great chance to know, what's the situation of MW in each country from various participants
5	Sharing experience with participants. I got to know about how people in receiving & sending countries think differently about same issue. Another thing was knowing about involvements of NHRIs on migration in various countries.
6	The way that participants engage and work together as a team, by giving them more to socialize
7	To me, the best part of the program were <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Creating Avenue to link with SR 2. NHRI & UN Linkage 3. a High Volume manual Relevant MWs (to protect them
8	Migrant Workers, ILO Convention and the RIGHT BASED APPROACH BECAUSE IT GIVE ME (US) EFFECTIVE TIME/ATMOSPHERE TO EXAMINE APPROPRIATE ILO CONVENTION ON DOMESTIC WORKERS. Eg THE GROUP EXERCISE ON DEFINING DEFINITION OF MIGRANT DOMESTIC WORK (ILO QUESTIONER).
9	Exchange and networking with NGOs and NHRC – I'm a journalist.
10	The Part about the MWC, clarified how the MWC could be used.
11	I really enjoyed and benefited from the debate between the participants stimulated by fantastic presentations. Networking.
12	The group exercises conducted were the most helpful because (1) We get to listen to both sides (receiving and sending countries). (2) work done/campaign conducted. (3) illegal issues (much clearer now) – especially the rights domestic works/ Role of NGO and NHRIs and how we can work together.
13	This program is the best for me, because this is the first time for me to learn with the other country. and I know many friends from oversea.
14	Media session. It encourages me to work on media session because I thought it's difficult for me to do but I change my perspective after this session

15	Countries presentations, Developing advocacy Allies and Break times, because those times are when we could share and developed networks most effectively.
16	Practical Exercises, because it encourage brain storming on different issues and team work cooperation and coordinating, and get new ideas and knowledge from group participants.
17	Meeting and working with the other participants. Tackling the challenge of the presentations and the activities. Visiting the President Jose Ramos Horta and Timor Leste.
18	All part is the best, Because all necessary Lesson To Shane To the other to increase our knowledge
19	The Media and Migrant Workers advocacy - Media skills Because it will help us to give short massages with high effects.
20	Migrant Workers and the role of NHRIs. Because the participants are from different groups, by explaining the role of NHRIs, everyone will be benefited and understand the roles of everyone and maybe can wok together in future.
21	The Media and Migrant worker Advocacy – Media skills by Arul Prakkash was the best part of the program. Because we are the people – who defends against human rights’ violations. So the media skills shall help us to promote & to prevent in advance those who might be victims of human right violations.
22	The Media and Migrant Worker Advocacy. Because the method is very easy. And all of the participant reaction with this session.

2. What was the most useful session or sessions for you? Why?

1	I would like to use the information I got from this training to do some advocacy for human rights workers.
2	All sessions were useful
3	Session about migrant workers, Media, international law and Human Rights giving perspective to me and my country to develop xxxxxx to issue migrant workers.
4	MW and the role of NHRI. I could have more ideas to build collaboration between NHRIs and NGOs
5	The sessions on Role of ‘NHRIs’ & ‘NHRIs & NGO networking’. I had little knowledge about how NHRIs can be involved in migration related issues.
6	All sessions have given more light to the issues that were slightly confusing or in which I did not have sufficient information
7	1. Media advocacy (Resource person was good & Expert). For human Rights Defenders, Media Knowledge is a must.
8	GROUP EXERCISE/ TASK WITH MEANINGFUL WAYS/ METHODS. E.g USING MEDIA ADVOCY AND SIMULATION FOR LOBBYING

	THE HR COMMITTEE.
9	The human rights session
10	(pasted under Q1) Using the Treaty Body Reporting Process to promote the Rights of MW (Practical exercise). It gave me an insight of how practically things happen.
11	NHRIs. Relevant to my work.
12	MWC session – informative and useful for my work.
13	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Group work 2. Exploring Avenues for NGO/NHRIs collaboration 3. Developing Advocacy for Allies NHRIs, Trade Unions
14	The session on Media and migrant worker advocacy, it increased our knowledge and skills on advocacy for the promotion of migrant worker rights, and as the public awareness raising on this issue is one of the most important keys.
15	MW's and the role of NHRIs. This semi-governmental body was a new concept to me. Karen Gomez brought up the role, the contradictory nature of of NHRI's –achieving both sides. (though as Ellene Sana explained, Singapore may not allow such an organization. U also loved J.John's presentation with his idea that the state is a violator of Human Rights. This was a refreshing break from the details of the conventions, articles, etc.
16	Human rights session, migrant workers session and Media & Migrant workers advocacy, media skills / all usefull including visited to President office.
17	The sessions done by Mr. Arul Prakkash because it is well prepared, presented, understood and fully integrated.
18	The media and migrant worker advocacy to promote and educate HR, we need to have a strong advocacy, however the media responsibilities to convey the rights and the truth of scenario not just try to exaggerate the issue.
19	The most useful session was the group exercise on suggestions to next APF meeting. We were able to have out say's and opinions from many different countries.
20	Role of NHRIS and migrant workers.
21	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Convention on migrant workers 2. Using the treaty body reports to promote the rights of migrant rights 3. Practical exercise

	4. The media and migrant worker advocacy

3. How will the knowledge of human rights and the UN system influence your work or your approach to the particular issues you are working on? Could you give an example?

1	For example , UN system is give assistant to promoting and protection the local NGOs to increase their capacity.
2	All relates to work- we work on HRs.
3	Ex. Ratification Convention, UN Chapter etc giving impact to my nation to realized because my country not have preparing to garated (?) the issue about migrant workers.
4	It'll help me to set up strategies on MW issue, which is best way to work in UN level.
5	Interaction with migrants makes me realize that how their rights at workplace, in the home country are denied by the state. People do not even have the knowledge that they are accepting injustice taking place against them.
6	It gives more understanding on the structure, function of the UN along with outcomes that we can have by the way of collaboration.
7	My plan to back home and set an appointment with HRC, after that I will seek another appointment with SR team representative in place of.
8	Using international human rights/ UN convention including ILO convention as advocacy tools for lobbying government on sending and receiving countries
9	Wider perspective on HR mechanisms very useful for media
10	The knowledge acquired will help me better advocate for and protect MW's rights as it has provided with tools of which I wasn't aware. I refer to the possibility of recursing to provisions of treaties else than CMW signed by a given country.
11	I will be able to use existing international instrument like CERD and cross reference them with MWC.
12	Better understanding of systems and from work will enable a more strategic approach.
13	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Lobby to ratify Migrant Worker's Convention 2. Lobby for policy changes- commenting on Bills 3. Understand importance of fighting for the rights of domestic workers 4. Equal pay for equal work- is just as important

15	I have a better understanding of the UN/ILO system and convention on migrant workers. It will make me work more efficiently.
16	Using the existing network to develop wider network. Sharpen my analysis on the advocacy on ESCR rights of migrant workers from rights based approach.
17	The advanced knowledge I gained in Human Rights standards, laws and human rights instruments in the UN cleared the mechanisms for the promotion and the protection and help us get advantage of reporting for the special rapporteur on migrant workers.
18	My present work is almost entirely working directly with MW's. The role of conventions, declarations, resolutions at present has little relevance in what I do. I hope to look at issues more from a framework of international standards and conventions.
19	Human right issue and UN system can help me to promote right of migrant workers. Example: I will give advocacy based on convention on human rights and convention on migrant workers rights.
20	Next year my office will be have program national inquiry. Maybe it's will give any influences and indicate about asking to inquiry and how to look perspective about migrant workers.
21	It will help me more understanding of MW and to advocate successfully and helpfully.
22	To understand the issues related to MW in detail and most of are countries are facing the same problems. Government and government should collaborate together.
23	UN System gives us the instruction or directions on the issues. So we make sure that none of our activities either policies will violate UN system policy on such issues.
