Organisation of DTP Alumni Y/N: Yes

DTP Annual Programs in Thailand were held in partnership with Forum Asia. Forum Asia is an organisation, which was established in 1991. Forum Asia is committed to building a peaceful, just, equitable and ecologically sustainable community of peoples and societies in Asia, where all human rights of all individuals, groups and peoples - in particular, the poor, marginalised and discriminated against - are fully respected and realised in accordance with internationally accepted human rights norms and standards. Forum Asia works closely with existing regional and international bodies including ASEAN, SAARC, the UN and other organisations to enhance the independence and effectiveness of existing human rights mechanisms within the region. In facilitating regional discussions, Forum Asia seeks to enhance safeguards for human rights defenders and promote human rights frameworks within the region. Forum Asia works to promote and protect all human rights, including the right to development, through collaboration and cooperation among human rights organizations and defenders in Asia.

Forum Asia has produced training manuals, videos, reference materials, proceedings, newsletters and reports for public use. As a regional organisation, Forum Asia has actively advocated for increased human rights mechanisms and civil society participation within Southern and Eastern Asia. Further, Forum Asia has also participated in regional forums on human rights issues including: migration, business and human rights, women’s rights, environmental sustainability and other international law issues.

1 The Diplomacy Training Program (DTP) is an NGO affiliated with the Faculty of Law at UNSW in Sydney. Since 1990, it has provided training to over 2600 human rights defenders and community advocates. These individuals work for a wide range of organisations working to promote shared values of human rights – in different ways. This profile is part of a series developed by DTP (www.dtp.unsw.edu.au) to illustrate the richness and diversity of the organisations working to promote human rights more broadly.
