Dear Patrick,

I understand you conducted a superb service for the late Garth Nettheim yesterday. I am sorry I was unable to be there.

At the meeting of ICJ Australia last night, the following resolution was passed. We would be pleased if you could send it on to whoever is appropriate in Garth's family.

The resolution is:

"The Council of ICJ Australia wishes to acknowledge that Garth was, both in Australia and internationally, a champion of human rights and the rule of law. He gave many years of service to ICJ Australia, and acted as an observer in international trials, particularly South Africa. His contribution to learning of the law and the principles of human rights was phenomenal."

Kindest regards,

The Hon John Dowd AO QC

President
