

UNSW Grand Challenge on Inequality and DTP invites you to a seminar:

The Sustainable Development Goals: Challenging Inequality in Australia

The United Nations Sustainable Development Goals challenge Australia to “Leave no-one Behind” and to address poverty, discrimination and marginalisation experienced by Indigenous Australians.

Review of Australia’s Performance on SDG’s:

In July 2018, Australia will deliver its first Voluntary National Review on the 2030 Agenda at the UN High Level Political Forum, providing an opportunity to scrutinise Australia’s record on equality and the situation of Indigenous Australians/Australia’s first peoples.

Joshua is an academic and activist who is currently a lecturer at the University of Hawaii with interests in political science and journalism. He is a trainer at the DTP focusing on peace and human rights concerns regarding Indigenous people in the Asia-Pacific region. Most recently, Joshua participated in the HLPF in New York.

Monday 21st August 2017

Location: UNSW Law Building Level 2, Staff Common Room

Time: 12 PM - 1PM

RSVP by 11:00 a.m. 21st August 2017 to ntp@unsw.edu.au

DIPLOMACY
TRAINING PROGRAM

Diplomacy Training Program LTD | Faculty of Law | UNSW | Sydney NSW 2052
Australia | ABN 31 003 925 148 Telephone: +61 (2) 9385 3549 | Fax : +61 (2) 9385
1778 |