Forum for Nation Building (FNB) Nepal is a Non-Governmental Organization (NGO) established in March 15, 2013 by youths of Nepal. The organization is registered at Kathmandu, Nepal working with the motto “Contribution for Nation Building” and more than 100 volunteer law students, lawyers and social science students are associated with us. Community Mobile Legal Clinic (CMLC) targeted to earthquake and domestic violence victims is one of the most successful programs of the organization where FNB is champion and foremost in Nepal. Migration School, Distant Psycho-social Counseling, Campaign to ban Nuclear Weapons, Capacity building of local government officials, Election Observation are other programs where the organization is involved.

FNB Nepal envisions the holistic development of the country with the assurance of full enjoyment of human rights for dignified living standard of individual. We work to contribute on nation building initiatives with collaboration, cooperation and dedicated actions with different stakeholders within and outside the country for effective implementation of existing laws, rules and regulations, introduction of new ones and development of holistic plans and policies. Likewise, FNB Nepal is also affiliated with several national, governmental and international social development clusters.

Just recently, FNB Nepal has also recently been designated fourth position among top ten organizations for ‘The Achmed Dean Sesay Memorial Prize for Innovation for its idea of conducting Community Mobile Legal Clinics (CMLC) for earthquake victims conducted in the 5 of the worst hit districts of Nepal.

Profile written May 2018

¹ The Diplomacy Training Program (DTP) is an NGO affiliated with the Faculty of Law at UNSW in Sydney. Since 1990, it has provided training to over 2800 human rights defenders and community advocates. These individuals work for a wide range of organisations working to promote shared values of human rights – in different ways. This profile is part of a series developed by DTP (www.dtp.unsw.edu.au) to illustrate the richness and diversity of the organisations working to promote human rights more broadly.
