

Participant Biography - John Asit

2004 Migrant Workers Program - Indonesia

2007 Human Rights Advocacy and Business Program - Indonesia

John Asit has been working for NGOs for over 15 years. He is currently a Senior Investigator with Ain o Salish Kendra (ASK), a legal aid and human rights organization, regularly examining and reporting on human rights violations in Bangladesh. He is also involved in follow-up activities such as lobbying and campaigning with government officers, lawyers, journalists and civil society leaders. John is actively engaged in the organisation and mobilisation of human rights defenders with the aim of building a strong community response to facilitate promotion of the human rights in Bangladesh. John believes that the training program provide an increased theoretical knowledge combined with practical experience. He is interested in sharing his expertise with other participants, and establishing better networking for CSR in the region.
